

Carrier Opportunity Program – Medical Coding Report

Department of biotechnology and biochemistry jointly organized a carrier opportunity program on Medical Coding for the bio science students at the seminar hall on 26-12-2018. The program got off with prayer by Mr. Muneer Basha 3rdB.Sc.Biotechnology. Dr. A. Mubarak Ali Department of Biotechnology welcomed the gathering. Dr. S. Raja Mohamed Kamil, Vice Principal, delivered presidential address and he coded the significance of the programme in providing job opportunities to the life sciences students and other allied science graduates and advised the students make use of the opportunity arranged at our college.

Mr. P. Sayeed, an expert in medical coding from Professional Infotech, Coimbatore was the resource person of the programme. He explained the students about medical coding and the procedure followed for the coding design. He covered wide range of aspects of medical coding. He also explained other aspects connected to medical coding such as medical transcription, telecommunication, training and placements. He educated the students about International Classification of Diseases (ICD). He added the significance of clinical research and pharmacovigilance. He gave a complete picture of carrier opportunities available in medical coding. He assured the students and exposed bright side of medical coding carrier, fair salary package and job satisfaction, potential in health care industry, scope to work in abroad and placement in leading health care MNC in India. At the end of the session he clarified doubts raised by the students on wide range aspects in medical coding.

